CHARLEROI REACHES THE FLAG QUOTA IN VICTORY CAMPAIGN

Bank Area, However, Fails To Come Up To Required Mark

EASTERN AREA IS AWAY OVER

While official figures are not available at this time. Chairman Daly has every confidence that Washington county has gone over the top. The western area of the county was short about $100,000 Saturday morning but it is asserted there were a sufficient number of subscriptions yet to come in that would more than make up the quota.

The eastern a rea of the county went $225,000 over the mark. The quota for this area was $2,700,000, while the total subscriptions amounted to $3,016,000, certainly a splendid showing.

So far as Charleroi is concerned it more than reached its flag quota of $560,000, but the bank area failed to reach t he mark set for it by the treasury department. The bank quota was $939,500 for the aret while the subscriptions amounted to $798,850 or a deficit of $140,650. However, it is not likely the government will ask the banks to assume this deficit, as the loan has been largely oversubscribed throughout the country, so that no trouble will be experienced in placing the bonds.

In the eastern area the communities which went over their quota were Donora, Fredericktown, Vestaburg, Daemston, California Somerset, West Bethlehem, Millsboro, Bealsville, Roscoe, Speers, Twilight, Charleroi and Monongahela.

There may be other localities which reached t heir quotas, but their final figures have not yet been made. The local loan headquarters for instance has h undreds of subscriptions yet to make up and when all the tabulations have been made it will be possible to give definite figures. This may require three or four days more time, but not later than the latter part of the week.

The local campaign was a most strenuous one and its success was due to the persistent work of the Chairman and their co-workers.

BLAST FURNACE IS NOW UNDER REPAIR

After almost continual operation since being lighted six years ago next August 13 and being pushed beyond normal capacity for the past two years, blast furnace No. 1 at the Pittsburf Steel Company plant in Monessen is down for relining and a general overhauling. This will require from eight to ten weeks. Furnace No. 2 will continue in operation during this time, supplying the needs of the plant, as well as the Pittsburg Steel Products Company. Both of these furnaces are of 500 ton capacity for each 24 hours, but during the war years produced about 700 tons each day.

"MOCK TRIAL" TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

All arrangement shave been completed for the "Mock Trial" which is to be given by Charleroi Circle No. 303, Protected Home Circle, which will be held in Bank of Charleroi Hall, Wednesday evening May 14 at 8:30 o'oclock. Judge, jury, counsel, witnesses, as well as the plaintiff and defendant, are all prepared for this event, which promises to be more than usually interesting to all participants, as well as those in attendance at the "court."

ONE HUNDRED TENTH NOW AT CAMP DIX

Companies A, B, C, D, and E. together with regimental headquarters and the headquarters Company of the One Hundred and Tenth Infantry, all under command of Col. "Joe" Thompson, arrived in Philadelphia Sunday evening on the transport Edgar Lukenbach, after a very rough voyage from St. Nazarre, France. The battalion arrived at 6:15 o'clock and after landing were loaded in waiting trains and sent to Camp Dix, where the entire regiment will be demobolized. On Thursday the 55th Infantry Brigade, composed of the 109th and 110th infantry regiments of the Twenty-eighth Division, together with other units of the same command, will parade in Philadelphia.

The One Hundred and Tenth, formerly the old "Fighting Tenth" of Philippine Island fame, lost more men in the great war from death and wounds than any other regiment in either the National Guard of National Army regiments, and its losses were only exceeded by four regiment of the regular army. Figures showed that its losses in battle were 112 per cent.

The various units of the 110th Regiment, as soon as the men are discharged will leave for their various homes and Western Pennsylvania will receive hundreds of these heroes of the western battle front within the next few weeks. The remaining Companies of the 110th are expected to arrive in Philadelphia today and they will go at once to Camp Dix.

BAR SELLS "NEAR BEER" ON SUNDAY

According to the Belle Vernon Enterprise the barroom of the Hotel Province was open on Sunday and several bar tenders were kept busy handing out the liquid refreshments. The participants seemed to enjoy the change and said it was a very good substitute, but lacked the "kick."

Send Congratulations To Victory Loan Workers

Chairman Kerfoot W. Daly received the following telegram this morning from Chairman H. C. McEldowney, General Chairman of the Victory Liberty Loan committee for the Pittsburg district:

Pittsburg, May 11—K. W. Daly, Charleroi—Reports filed from counties in Western Pennsylvania indicate that all have reached or exceeded their quotas. Owing to peculiar conditions the Victory Loan required unusual effort. The result is a great tribute to the patriotism, zeal and devotion to duty of your splendid organization. We extend you and your workers our heartiest congratulations. H. C. McElDowney, General Chairman; H. C. Ward, Field Chairman; F. D. Glover, Field Secretary.

To The Public.

As there seems to be so many conflicting reports circulating relative to the idleness of the building trades, we thought it best to give the public the facts in the case leading up to May 1. The statement of the District Council of the Carpenters Union in Saturday's issue of the "Mail" is not correct, wherein they state that the Building Contractor's Association suspended work indefinitely on April 30. Heretofore the employers of Union Labor in building construction have had an agreement with the different crafts, expiring on May 1 of each year and that ninety days notice was to be given previous to May 1 if any change in the rate of wages was desired by either party. This custom and agreement has been strictly adhered to by both parties, especially with the carpenter's union, and that settlement always was made for the year ending May 1 in each year. On March 1, the District Council sentout a notice that on and after May 5, 1919 the minimum wages for a journeymen carpenter would be 87 1-2 cents per hour and forty four hours per week four hours work on Saturday. There was nothing in this notice saying how long this would continue, whether it would be for one month or a year. The employers of Union carpenters thought that this was not the timeto increase wages and that we should be able and willing to go along on the same basis as last year, which was 75c per hour, forty eight hours per week.

The Building Construction Employers Association of Monongahela Valley notified the District Council that they had a committee appointed which would be glad to meet the committee of the District Council to try and get an adjustment on the wage question for the year 1919. This notice was sent on April 5 and a meeting was held with the committee of the carpenters on April 17 but no agreement was reached. The committee held to their demand of 37 1-2 cents per hour to go into effect May 1 and we tried to impress upon them that the rate should be made the same as last year and requested them to take it up with the District Council and see if they would not reconsider their demand and advise us the result. We have not received any notice from the District Council or the committee that they had reconsidered their demand in any way.

The members of the Building Employers Association which includes all Master Builders from Monongahela City to Brownsville are ready at any time to sign an agreement with the Carpenters, Painters, Tinners and Plasterers on the same rate of wages as was paid in 1918 up to April 30, 1919, this agreement to run from May 1, 1919 to May 1, 1920 and want the public to know that this is not a lockout by the Employers but it is strictly up to the different Crafts to decide as to whether they are willing to work according to theabove statement or continue striking as they are doing at the present time.

There is another matter that should receive the attention of the public especially those who are hiring labor doing repair work on their property and that is Compensation Insurance. The individual employing labor should make it a point to inquire as to whether they carry Compensation Insurance as any accident that may occur, the owner is held liable for it unless covered by insurance.

The Building Construction Employer's Association of Monongahela Valley,

CLUB CONDITION GROW WORSE IN MONESSEN

According to the Monessen News, "interest in the liquor business has been transferred from the bar room to the club room. Clubs in Monessen as well as over the county are being overworked during the 60-day enforced prohibition. Members either shut their eyes or wink at what is going on. In many instances it is said the conditions of membership and privileges are being observed very carelessly. In some instances also gambling devices have been admitted to add further to the wild west situation.

"Bartenders who lost their jobs Wednesday night, May 1, went to work the next day atsome club. There is found a large percentage of club membership that objects to conditions both as to business and gambling devices, which may bring out the issue before July 1, if the district attorney's office does n ot act before that time. Public officials as well as club attendants are aware of the conditions existing but have done little or nothing."

The Musical Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. G. T. Barger at 201 Prospect avenue this evening.

Expect to Raise $105,000,000 In Campaign About to Open

COMMITTEES ARE ALL READY

With the close of the Victory Liberty loan campaign, the Methodist Episcopal church will open its campaign for its one hundred and five million dollar fund, which is to be devoted to various needs of the church. Every Methodist church in the United States will engage in this campaign, arrangements for which were practically completed about t he first of the year, but which was postponed at the request of the government on account of the Victory Liberty loan, which was then in contemplation.

In this campaign the Charleroi church will have an important share and already committees have been named to solicit among the membership for subscriptions to this fund. In some districts tentative subscriptions had already b een made to this fund, but with the Victory campaign out of the way the real work of the church will get under way at once.

This campaign is to be confined to members of the church or the various that Methodism will rise to the occ ed for. These amounts will vary in different communities, depending altogether upon the size of thechurch membership in that locality. A number of churches have been doing quiet work foh some time, but now with the government work out of the way the drive for the big sum will proceed with the greatest activity.

THE DAY

May 7. 1919, was "Der Tag," or "The Day." It was not selected by the Germans as a day of celebration, but it was the day selected by the allied powers to present to the representatives of the German government the terms of peace as formulated by the conference which has been in session at Paris for several months past.

May 7. 1915, was the day the Germans sunk the Lusitania with a torpedo fired from a submarine which had lain in waiting for the big vessel as it was nearing its destination. That day four years ago eleven hundred men, women and children on the ill-fated boat were sent to their death by the ruthless warfare which had been inaugurated by the Germans in the hope of preventing supplies from reaching the allied countries of Europe.

The horrible act created a feeling against the Germans and their methods which was world-wide and which eventually brought the United States into the conflict.

Four years later to the day the Germans who had finally reached Paris but who came more as prisoners than as representatives of a former mighty empire, received at the hands of their conquerors the sentence which had been placed upon that nation and its people. The date was fitting for imposing such a sentence, and inadequate as we may think the verdict is, it is certainly a matter of congratulation to all the allied powers that "Der Tag" to Germany has proven to be a day of gloom rather than one of rejoicing in a triumph over christianity.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

Mr. Burleson has been the chief advisor of the President on politics ever since the present Administration began. He was one of the leaders in the Wilson campaign both for nomination and election. He has been the man upon whom the President has leaned for political advice. He has been the representative of the White House at Capitol. and has been the bearer of its commands to the Democratic Representatives and Senators. He has been the messenger to tell the party legislators what legislation to pass. and how it should be drawn. In camparison with the Postmaster General those who now seek his scalp are leagues away from Mr. Wilson.

Under these circumstances. it can be taken for granted that Mr. Burleson has acted by and with the advice of his chief. It is practically unthinkable that he would have assumed such great responsibilities upon his own initiative. When a member of the Cabinet finds himself out of harmony with his chief. he straightway hands in his regisnation. Mr. Bryan did this . Mr. Garrison did the same. If Mr. Burleson were not in harmony with Mr. Wilson Mr. Burleson would step down and out. In the very nature of things Mr. Burleson in the things that he has done has had the approval of President Wilson. Those who disapprove his acts and policies should put the blame where it rightfully belongs—Philadelphia Press.

REDFIELD'S RING AROUND THE ROSY

It took Secretary of Commerce Redfield several years to awaken from the delusions under which he labored in 1912. In 1912 he was helping to elect Woodrow Wilson on a platform which called for lower import duties so that American producers would come into competition with cheap production in Europe and Asia. and which demanded legislation giving more effective force to the Sherman anti-trust law. In 1919 he delivered an address before the U. S. Chamber of Commerce in which he said "Is the reaction from combination to competition the sound and normal thing? It seems to me that it is not and we should not dare to restore or to attempt to restore by force of law a condition so threatening to the community as unrestrained competition is" In 1912 Redfield and his cohorts were clamoring for full competition, not only among American producers, but among the producers of the world, thus subjecting American production to the destroying force of European and Asiatic standards of wages and living. In 1919, Redfield sees the error of his way, in part at least, and he will be out on the stump in 1920 asking the country to continue the Democrats in power for four years longer so that they may discover some more of their fallacious theories.

DANDELIONS ARE PLENTIFUL THIS YEAR

There may be something in the tradition that every other year is a big dandelion year. In fact, some people say, that it is true and not a legend. In any event people who have gone on Sunday walks or hikes have seen abundant proof that the dandelion is prompting to get in its own hereabouts.

It is said that not for years has there been so many thousands of the yellow dots in many of the fields in this section of the valley. They make a pretty picture, but lawns in town have no room for them.

PHYSICIANS RECEIVES NOTICE OF HIS DEATH

When Captain W. D. Hunter's personal belongings arrived at Hoboken, N. J., alone, a letter was sent to Mrs. W. D. Hunter of Reed avenue, Monessen. The message expressed sympathy over the physician's death and stated that she should fill out an enclosed certificate so they could determine the soldier's legal heirs who would receive $115 insurance a month for 15 years. At the time of the reception of the letter Capt. Hunter was at home and had the strange and peculiar experience of reading his own obituary.

OUR FIRST DRIVE

Leaving the woods in the middle of the night
Prepared of course for a good long hike
We started out. "The 80th Division"
Bent on naught, but a final decision.
The night was dark, our approach was slow
Tense due to traffic. still onward we go
Every man eager, we came to the line
So being ready, we waited for the time.

The Zero hour is now at hand
"Over the Top" boys. our leaders command
The barrage has started, My how the guns roar
As into the land where few birds stop to soar
Our army goes forward, the way. it is rough
Through swamp and shell holes, it surely was tough,
But the minds of our men were keen and alert
So thought nothing of this, nor their duty to shirk.

Our machine guns behind us made such a fuss
The boys all imagined they could hear Jerry cuss,
With this introduction the battle began
The Huns were frightened and some of them ran
Now their are exceptions as in most every case
And (their Red Cross) machine Gunners put a check to the race
But thanks to good judgment tho some of us fell
These Red Cross machine gunners soon went to hell.

The Pathway is clear. we go forward once more
And our boys tho light hearted. are weary and sore
So all through the day with nothing to eat
"Onward" was our slogan no thought of retreat
Through thick woods and Valley with miles left behind
The drive is contmued. more Jerries to find
Caught unawares and all through the fields
He was forced to surrender or take to his heels .

The prisoners came fast. the numbers soon soar,
And before we had finished four thousand or more
Who were tired and worn. cheerfully surrendered
Happy to know that their troubles had ended.
Pass by our dough boys. they were marched away
To meet other comrades captured that day,
In the great battle which we all remember
To have taken place on the 26th of September.

The drive is completed. our objective is reached,
We establish a line then wait for relief
And thanks to our officers whom we must not forget
For we feel through their judgment, we arestill living yet.

Already half of the two million soldiers we sent to Europe have been brought home. As foreigners so often remark, one of the most noticeable of American characteristics is hurry.

Wednesday's our truck is in Charleroi. A postal card will bring it to your door. DryCleaning done by experts.

GERMANY SURRENDERS—
ARE YOU STILL GLAD TODAY?

Gold Dollars or Stars!

Three men in a dugout.

Z -- Z -- Z -- ! Bang---- !

One man groaning in agony, asking someone for mercy's sake to kill him —writhing on the ground—legless.

One man crouching against the wall, the upper part of his head blown off, a grotesque jaw the only indication that a man's head had been on that body.

And a third—the writer.

* * * *

Who stopped this slaughter?

You at home.

Germany saw that you were heart and soul in the struggle; that you were willing to make any sacrifice for victory; that your tremendous war preparations in men, equipment, munitions, ships and aeroplanes made Victory a certainty.

Now you have the chance of paying for that Victory with your dollars instead of your sons' blood—with gold dollars instead of gold service stars.

The man who passed through this experience will invest. Will You?

MONESSEN HAS HER YOUTHFUL OFFENDERS

That other communities besides Charleroi have their juvenile delinquent problem is shown by the arrest of four boys in Monessen for the theft of $150.00. These boys were employed as pin spotters at a bowling alley in that town, and while thus engaged robbed one of the players of $150 in cash. The boys divided the money among them and then proceeded to make a round of the restaurants where they spent money quite freely. At a hearing given before the burgess after they had been arrested and at which their parents were present, the latter expressed the opinion that the boys should be taken to jail, as they had been in trouble before. The culprits ranged in age from 10 to 16 years.

The Grand, Pittsburgh.

One of the most interesting photoplay productions of many months has been booked for showing at the new Million Dollar Grand throughout next week starting Monday morning, May 12. It is Anita Stewart's new silent drama, "Mary Regan," made from Leroy Scott's magazine stories of which Mary Regan was the principal character. The picture is a thrilling tale of the cafe, police and high society circles of New York related with an almost unequaled quality of mystery, romance and the elements of surprise. The picture has been provided with an excellent cast, and an effort has been made to have costumes and settings superfine.

The Davis, Pittsburgh.

Dual matinees and evening performances at the Davis Theatre throughout the week which begins on Monday afternoon, April 12, will consist of a group of nine Keith vaudeville acts, with Marie Dressler, the buffoon of muscal comedy, as the headliner, with Will M. Cressy and Blanche Dyne, sketch players, as a special extra attraction. Miss Dressler, who is perhaps most vividly remembered as the star of "Tillie's Nightmare," and as the featured comedienne with Weber and Fields travesty companies, has also had a highly successful career both in vaudeville and on the screen. Her most notable achievement as a film star was in conjunction with Charlie Chaplin, in "Tillie's Punctured Romance," which is universally conceded to have been the most ludicrous moving picture that has ever been produced. For her present vaudeville tour Miss Dressler, who devoted an entire year of her time exclusively to government service as an entertainer in camps and cantonments, has prepared a repertoire of new character songs and incidental patter, and a lot of those hoydenish pranks that have always characterized her work in musical comedy.

AFTER SUFFERING A WHOLE YEAR

Mrs. King Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Iola, Kansas.—"I was a constant sufferer from female trouble for about a year. I had pains in back and stomach, in fact all over me, and was all rundown. A friend of mine was cured of the same trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and it gave me health and strength and made a new woman of me. I cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly, and you may publish my testimonial as it may be the means of helping some other suffering woman."—Mrs. IRENE KING, 105 West Campbell Street, Iola, Kansas.

The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory, many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, ready to bring you health and may save your life.
